For the safe operation of the school bus and the safety for all concerned the driver reserves the right to instruct the students of proper behavior on the bus. These policies and procedures are State and Federally regulated. Unruly or unsafe behavior will not be tolerated. I have read all this information and understand the commitment to provide service for one full school year in exchange for my commitment to pay the yearly fee.

The bus service begins on the first day of school and commences on the last full day my child is scheduled to attend classes. On awards day there is no bus service.
